

☞ Children's Outreach in Sierra Leone ☞

Field Director Milton Godwin rejoices for the growth of the Congo Town church and that nine young people were baptized in April. The school at the Congo Town church also held a special celebration to end the school year -- a thanksgiving day was celebrated in a nearby large Methodist church facility to accommodate the crowd. All 280 students attended with their family members. We praise God for this wonderful event and the school's testimony to the community.

☞ New Field Director in the Philippines ☞

The new field director in the Philippines is Raphael Quiñones, who is also the national director of INSTE in the Philippines and pastor of the church in Quezon City. He was elected as POBM president at their national convention in April.

☞ Sixtieth Anniversary in Cuba ☞

Field Director David Moreno shares with us that on April 20-24, 2010, Open Bible churches in Cuba will celebrate their Sixtieth Anniversary. We praise God for this wonderful event that will celebrate the expansion and growth of the ministry in Cuba, which continues to experience revival and see many souls won for the Kingdom of God.

☞ INSTE's New Name ☞

INSTE in the U.S. will now be known as INSTE Bible College, as reported by Dr. Leona Ventitti, co-director. "This name change is for several reasons: (1) It reflects the high quality of education afforded by INSTE. (2) INSTE Bible College says who we are. (3) Among our colleagues in DETC, 'college' indicates that we are a degree-granting institution." With the new name comes a new logo and updated information on their Web site: inste.edu.

☞ School of Global Leadership – Trinidad ☞

Director Vince McCarty and missionaries Mike, Pam and Ashleigh Lumbard rejoice for a very successful trip to Trinidad, the next step in establishing the School of Global Leadership. They met with the National Board of Open Bible Standard Churches in Trinidad, who also continues to pledge their unwavering support for the School. Point Fortin, pastored by Rev. Vickrim Hajaree, will be the home church for the School. During their trip, the comment "This is God's timing" was heard repeatedly. We agree. The target date for launching the school is fall of 2010.

☞ Women's Conference in Papua New Guinea ☞

Field Director Joseph Cassey reports a wonderful women's conference at the Ivingoi Mission Station and that four women made a first-time decision to receive Christ as Savior. It was especially significant because one of the women, Mobuta Awa, walked for a day and a night to attend. We praise the Lord for these new lives that have come into the Kingdom.

☞ New INSTE Director in Spain ☞

The new INSTE director for Spain is Javier Jimeno, who pastors the church in Alacante. The INSTE ministry continues to grow in Spain, within Open Bible and other denominations.

Serving with Passion, Integrity and Vision