Section 3. Availability of Records

All records are the property of the corporation and shall be open at all times to the inspection of the senior pastor, the church's governing board, and national and regional representatives of Open Bible Churches. With proper notice, all records shall be open to active members in good standing and to all other parties as required by state law.

Section 4. Reports

The senior pastor, officers, and members of the governing board shall submit reports requested by authorized national and regional representatives of Open Bible Churches, giving a full and accurate accounting of spiritual activities, membership, attendance, property, and finances.

Section 5. Governance Conflicts and Omissions

When there is a conflict between bylaws of the church and the provisions, procedures, and regulations in the Open Bible Manual, or when the bylaws of the church are silent, the provisions, procedures, and regulations in the Open Bible Manual shall prevail. In the event of a conflict between any provisions in the Open Bible Manual or bylaws of the church between the laws or regulations of the state, county, or city, only the provision in conflict shall be of no effect. The church believes in abiding by the laws and regulations of its country, state, county, and city. However, should a situation arise where any law or regulation of the country, state, county, or city is in opposition to or impinges on the closely held religious beliefs of the church, as espoused in the Open Bible Manual, the church reserves the right to utilize its First Amendment right to the free exercise of religion (Acts 4:1-21).

Section 6. Personal Liability

The private property of directors, officers, and members of this church shall be exempt from corporate debts and liabilities.

Section 7. Officer and Director Indemnity

No officer, director or employee acting in accordance with bylaws shall be liable except for willful misconduct. No officer, director or employee shall be liable for any action taken by that person in good faith in furtherance of the ordinary affairs of the corporation, even though not authorized by the bylaws then in effect.

Importance

Section 1. Definition

Membership in the church is a covenant partnership with individuals who have accepted and professed their faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Members shall be in accord with the purpose, statement of faith, bylaws, and the pastors and leaders of the church. Individuals who have met membership requirements, have been publicly accepted, and are in good standing as active members shall receive the privileges and responsibilities of membership.

Section 2. Eligibility

Any individual desiring membership must attend the church on a consistent basis for (insert time period, such as three months) and:

- A. Demonstrate evidence of a new birth experience and a consistent, Christian life. (John 1:12-13, 3:3-7; Acts 4:12; Romans 6:4, 10:9-10; Ephesians 4:17-32, 5:1-2; 1 John 1:6, 7.)
- B. Demonstrate a cooperative, accountable, and Christ-like spirit as instructed in Scripture. (Ephesians 2:1-16.)
- C. Commit to faithfully attend and participate in the meetings and ministries of the church and regularly contribute to its financial support in obedience to Scripture and as an expression of unity with fellow members. (Malachi 3:10; Luke 6:38; John 13:1-17; 1 Corinthians 16:2; 2 Corinthians 8, 9; Philippians 4:9.)
- D. Be 12 years of age, with voting privileges beginning at age 18.
- E. Subscribe to the statement of faith of the church.
- F. Abstain from all immorality condemned in Scripture. Immorality shall be considered grounds for refusing membership.

Section 3. Process for Acceptance

- A. Individuals desiring to be active members of the church shall request to enroll in the membership class. The senior pastor will evaluate and determine readiness for enrollment. The class shall include, but not be limited to, the purpose and mission, statement of faith, history, bylaws, and governance structure of the church, the responsibilities and privileges of membership, and relationship with Open Bible Churches. Class participants shall receive a copy of the church bylaws.
- B. Upon completion of the membership class, applicants shall submit a signed application for membership to the senior pastor and affirm in writing they are in accord with the purpose, statement of faith, bylaws, and the pastors and leaders of the church. The senior pastor shall present applications with recommendations to the governing board of elders, who shall give final approval.
- C. Approved applicants shall be publicly received as members in a church service. Their names, addresses, types of membership, and the date they were officially accepted shall be included in the membership record of the church.

CONTENT: Recommended

You may rewrite membership, eligibility requirements for your church. This is a basic standard of eligibility that covers the essence of membership without appearing legalistic. Some churches may decide to specifically include tithing as a financial requirement. Some churches may begin the membership age at 18. Some churches may feel certain sinful actions, such as homosexuality, ought to be specifically proscribed, although item F calls for members to abstain from all immorality condemned in Scripture.

Section 4. Pastors

The senior pastor and spouse shall be members of the church by virtue of their call to serve and shall exercise full membership privileges. Staff pastors, as well as the children of all pastors, may become members of the church through the regular process for acceptance. The membership of the senior pastor and spouse shall terminate at the time they cease to serve in such capacities.

- A. Spiritual Covering – Have the benefit of a spiritual covering from those whom God has placed over them in leadership of the church.
- B. Participation – Have opportunity to attend the worship services and functions of the church.
- C. Fellowship – Have opportunity to receive the intangible benefits of fellowship with this body of believers and the added relationship with the Open Bible family of churches, covenanting to grow together in community, love, and grace.
- D. Instruction – Have opportunity to benefit from balanced doctrine and teaching from the Word of God.
- E. Spiritual Growth – Have opportunity to grow in service to the Lord through the church as giftings are recognized by the senior pastor and church leaders and nurtured and activated through training and teaching.
- F. Ministry – Have opportunity of involvement in outreach ministries through the church, extending through the Open Bible family of churches in the United States and around the world.
- G. Partnership – Have voice and vote in church matters, as defined in these bylaws.
- H. Giving – Have opportunity to sow financially into the ministries of the church by honoring the Lord with their first fruits – bringing their tithes, offerings, and other gifts of love to the church for His work.
- I. Accountability – Have the assurance Open Bible Churches provides a covering of accountability for its pastors and governing board.
- J. Election – Have opportunity to elect the senior pastor and members of the church's governing board as prescribed in these bylaws.
- K. Property and Indebtedness – Have the opportunity to vote on all property sales, purchases, and encumbrances, and on all church indebtedness over ($).

Section 6. Responsibilities

The Apostle Paul admonishes us to be devoted to brotherly love, honoring one another above ourselves (Romans 12:10). Accordingly, members of the church shall demonstrate a maturity of understanding that membership involves more than receiving benefits and privileges. Jesus instructs us, as we have freely received, we must also freely give (Matthew 10:8). The church is one body with many members each with distinct giftings and functions, and therefore members shall accept responsibility to submit their lives and activities (Romans 12:1) through:

- A. Prayer – Cultivate a personal prayer life and be faithfully devoted to consistently pray for the pastor and leaders, members and ministries, and participate in the prayer focuses of the church.
- B. Faithfulness – Be faithful to the doctrines of the church's statement of faith, to assemble for worship, to establish healthy relationships with the church body, and to grow in fellowship.
- C. Love and Care – Walk in love and demonstrate loving care for the church body, personally making every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.
- D. Identification – Identify with and demonstrate loyalty to the purpose, mission, vision, leadership, and teachings of the church and accept this church body as the focus of their fellowship, prayer, offerings, and teachings.
- E. Teachable Spirit – Desire to grow in the grace of the Lord, maintain teachable spirits, and follow the teachings of the pastors and church leaders.
- F. Service – Humbly pursue opportunities for involvement in the ministries of the church as abilities and giftings are recognized by the pastors and leaders of the church.
- G. Financial Support – Financially support the church through tithes, offerings, and gifts in like measure as the Lord blesses, recognizing God uses financial support to enable the church to fulfill its purpose, mission, and vision.
- H. Witnessing – Follow biblical instruction to lead others to Christ and make disciples.

Section 7. Types

The senior pastor and governing board shall maintain an accessible membership record containing the names and contact information of all members.

- A. Active – Active members are those who have been accepted into membership, who adhere to the statement of faith of the church, are in good standing because of their faithfulness to the responsibilities of membership, and are not under disciplinary restriction. Privileges of membership shall only be extended to active members.
- B. Inactive – Members who have not been in attendance at the services of the church or who cease to contribute to the support of the church for three consecutive months without just cause, as determined by the senior pastor and governing board, may be placed on the inactive membership list. Inactive members shall be notified by letter from the governing board. Members desiring to return to active membership may make application to the senior pastor and governing board and may be reinstated, should the senior pastor and governing board deem that advisable. Members with inactive status forfeit privileges of active membership and do not have the right of vote or participation in business meetings. After one year, inactive members may be removed from church membership by the senior pastor and governing board and shall be notified by letter.

Homebound – Members who by reason of age and/or health cannot attend regular services but who stay in fellowship by actively supporting the church according to ability, with prayer, finances, and other membership responsibilities can be classified as homebound members by the governing board. Homebound members shall be granted voting privileges by absentee ballot as prescribed in these bylaws.

Section 8. Meetings, Voting Privileges, and Quorum

The time and place for all membership business meetings shall be determined by the senior pastor and governing board.

- A. Annual Business Meetings – An annual business meeting shall be held not later than May 31.
- B. Special Business Meetings – Special business meetings may be called by official written notice to the active church membership by the senior pastor or a majority of the governing board.
- C. Minutes – Minutes shall be kept of all business meetings.
- D. Official Notification – The official notice of annual or special business meetings of the church shall state the purpose, place, and time of the meetings. The notices shall be published not less than two weeks before the date of the proposed meeting. Official notices shall be given by announcement during the regularly scheduled services and by written, mailed notice distributed to active members.
- E. Privilege to Vote and Quorum – Voting privilege shall be accorded only to active members in good standing who are 18 years of age or older and who have been members for at least 30 days. Absentee ballots shall not be permitted except for homebound members. Active voting members in good standing in attendance shall constitute a quorum at all business meetings. Membership decisions shall be by majority vote unless otherwise stipulated herein.
- F. Membership Record – The governing board shall review and update the membership record at least annually preceding the official notification of annual and special business meetings and notify by mail those members moved from active to inactive status.

Section 9. Discipline

- A. Purpose – Discipline is a biblical exercise for which God holds the church responsible and accountable. Its design is to preserve Bible standards, protect integrity and anointing, and bring the offender to repentance, redemption, and restoration to God, self, family, and others. (2 Samuel 12:1-14; 1 Corinthians 5; 2 Corinthians 2:3-11; Galatians 6:1-5; James 5:19-20.) In the spirit of Galatians 6:1-2, the church is committed to the healing and restoration of the fallen.
- B. Process – Members found guilty of conduct contrary to Scripture, teaching contrary to the statement of faith, causing conflict among the members, or failure to be in harmony or cooperation with the program of the church, the senior pastor, or these bylaws shall be confronted first by the senior pastor and, if necessary, by the governing board or elders. Members who refuse to repent and receive corrective discipline in the spirit of restoration may be dismissed from membership by the governing board or elders upon recommendation of the senior pastor. Members accused of wrong doing or under discipline forfeit the right to resign from membership. Resignations from membership are possible only by active members in good standing not accused of wrong doing and not under discipline. Members who are dismissed from membership shall be notified by mail by the secretary of the church.

Section 10. Transfer and Withdrawal

- A. Transfer – Individuals requesting to transfer membership from another church shall meet eligibility and acceptance requirements, request a letter of recommendation from the senior pastor of the former church, and obtain approval by the senior pastor and governing board or elders. Transferees shall be publicly presented to the membership. Active members in good standing may be given a signed letter of transfer to another church by the senior pastor and governing board or elders.
- B. Withdrawal – Active, inactive, and homebound members not accused of wrongdoing or under discipline may voluntarily withdraw from membership by submitting a signed letter of notification to the senior pastor and governing board or elders.

ARTICLE 5. CORPORATE OFFICERS

The officers of the church corporation shall be the senior pastor, who shall serve as president, a secretary, a treasurer, and if so determined by the governing board, a vice president.

Section 1. Eligibility

An officer must be a member in good standing of the church and living a godly, Christian life.

Section 2. Appointment and Term of Office

The senior pastor shall be the president of the corporation for a term concurrent with his service as senior pastor. Upon recommendation of the senior pastor, the governing board shall appoint, continue in office, or terminate the other officers of the corporation and determine terms of service.

Section 5. Accountability

The president shall be accountable to the governing board. Other officers shall be accountable to the president for faithfulness and fulfillment of their duties.

Section 6. Duties

- A. President – The president is the chief executive officer of the church corporation, implements the directives of the governing board, is a member of the governing board, and shall act as chairman of all business meetings of the church and the governing board. The president shall serve as member ex-officio of all church bodies and organizations of the church.
- B. Secretary – The secretary shall keep accurate minutes of all governing board, annual, and special business meetings and may act as secretary of any other body or committee as desired by the senior pastor. The secretary shall provide for the safekeeping of all records and documents of the church, sign legal papers, and perform other duties as required by the senior pastor and governing board.
- C. Treasurer – The treasurer shall supervise the receipt and deposit of all funds of the church in accordance with the finance provisions of these bylaws. The treasurer shall keep accurate records of all receipts and disbursements, maintain and distribute donor receipts according to IRS policy, submit monthly reports to the senior pastor and governing board, an annual report to the membership, and upon request by the senior pastor and governing board, submit other reports to the membership of the church. With the approval of the governing board the treasurer shall establish an accountable plan of internal control. All records shall be open at all times to inspection by the senior pastor, governing board, and national and regional representatives of Open Bible Churches. All records shall be open with proper notice to active members in good standing and to other parties as required by state law.

ARTICLE 6. SENIOR PASTOR

Section 1. Definition

The senior pastor is the shepherd of the flock. The senior pastor, under the guidance of God, in consultation with the governing board of the church, and in partnership with Open Bible Churches, will provide vision and practical direction to the church body.

Section 2. Eligibility

The senior pastor shall exemplify the characteristics of a godly, Christian life and possess the qualities of a spiritual leader as stated in 1 Timothy 3:1-13. The senior pastor shall be a credentialed minister in good standing with Open Bible Churches. Should the church select a senior pastor who is not a credentialed, Open Bible minister the church shall automatically be under regional supervision as prescribed in the Open Bible Manual.

Section 3. Pastoral-Selection Process

The pastoral-selection process shall be conducted as prescribed in the Open Bible Manual, under the leadership of the regional executive director or representative in accordance with the procedures established in the Open Bible Manual for a pastor-congregation-board bylaw model. The regional executive director or representative will work in consultation with the governing board to assist in a search for and selection of an eligible senior pastor.

Section 4. Pastoral Reelection

After the initial call, the senior pastor shall be reelected every three to five years, as determined by the governing board. The election shall take place at an annual or specially called meeting of the church membership. Any pastor in good standing whose term expires shall be eligible for reelection; however, no pastor may be elected for a life term.

This vote may be included as part of the annual business meeting, if the date of the annual business meeting coincides with the senior pastor's term. However, if a vote on the continuation of the senior pastor is to be included in the annual meeting, the notice of the meeting shall clearly specify such a vote will be taken at the annual meeting.
- B. Notice of the meeting shall be sent to all active members in good standing and homebound members by regular mail, posted on the church's bulletin board, printed in the church bulletin, and announced at a regularly scheduled worship service at least two weeks prior to the date of the meeting.
- C. The governing board may request the regional executive director provide a chair for the meeting.
- D. A two-thirds majority vote of active members in good standing present and seated at the meeting called for the purpose of pastoral reelection and of absentee ballots of homebound members is required for pastoral retention.
- E. In the event the senior pastor is reelected, the secretary shall send immediate, written notice, preferably electronically, of the reelection to the regional executive director.
- F. In the event the senior pastor is not reelected, the secretary shall send immediate, written notice, preferably electronically, of the failure to reelect to the regional executive director. The senior pastor's service will cease within 30 days. A failure to reelect will initiate the pastoral-selection process as prescribed herein and in the Open Bible Manual for churches with a pastor- congregation-board bylaw model.
- G. In the event only a simple majority vote is received, the senior pastor, the governing board, or the congregation may request approval from the regional board to retain the senior pastor. If approval is granted, the senior pastor will be retained for one year. At the end of that year, another membership meeting shall be called for the purpose of voting on the senior pastor's retention.

Section 5. Duties

The senior pastor shall:

- A. Be the spiritual and corporate leader of the church. The senior pastor shall minister to the spiritual needs of and guard the membership against dissension and be devoted to the mission of the church.
- B. Call and lead meetings of the governing board and business meetings of the membership.
- C. Consistently work to strengthen Christian life among the membership and in the community.
- D. Have full responsibility for the supervision of all services and meetings of the church, except as otherwise provided in these bylaws, have general supervision over all ministries and auxiliary activities, and be an ex-officio member of all church bodies.
- E. Be responsible, with the treasurer and governing board of the church, for deposits and disbursements of all funds, records, and reporting of finances.
- F. Recommend nominees to be members of the governing board as prescribed in these bylaws.
- G. Recommend all pastoral and staff positions and personnel, both paid and unpaid, for approval or appointment by the governing board.
- H. Be responsible, in consultation with the governing board, for biennial reviews and evaluations of staff pastors, members of the governing board, administrative staff, and ministry leaders.
- I. Provide at least 30 days written notice to the governing board and regional executive director prior to resignation.

Section 6. Financial Support

- A. Compensation and Benefits – The senior pastor shall be compensated for services by a compensation and benefits package. The governing board shall review the senior pastor's compensation and benefits package at least annually. The governing board shall submit the compensation and benefits package to the regional executive director who shall provide confidential assessment and counsel.
- B. Housing Allowance – The senior pastor may annually submit a signed request to the governing board for a portion of his compensation to be classified and recorded in minutes as housing allowance and excluded from federal taxes as provided by the IRS. Housing allowance requests shall always be submitted and approved in advance of implementation.
- C. Event and Ministry Function Expenses – The governing board shall give consideration to the payment of expenses incurred by the senior pastor's attendance at regional and national Open Bible Churches' events and other church or ministry functions. The governing board shall pay, reimburse, or provide an offering to help defray such expenses, according to the ability of the church.

No later than two months prior to a membership meeting, the pastor and governing board shall invite active members in good standing to nominate in writing, for a period of 30 days, individuals they believe eligible for consideration to serve as members of the governing board. Nominations will not be accepted other than by this process. The senior pastor shall take into consideration those names submitted when recommending nominees to the governing board. The senior pastor and governing board shall prepare and submit the list of nominees to the membership for election. The list of nominees shall be presented to the active members at least two weeks prior to election. The active members in good standing present at an annual or specially called membership meeting shall vote on the nominees. The nominee(s) who receive the most votes shall be elected to fill the open seat or seats on the governing board.

Section 4. Vacancy or Incapacity

In the event of a vacancy or incapacity of a member of the governing board, upon recommendation of the senior pastor, the governing board shall appoint a successor to fulfill the uncompleted term of service.

Section 5. Term of Appointment

The term of appointment shall be one to three years. Terms of office shall commence from the date of election by the active members in good standing, or as separately provided by the governing board. Members of the governing board shall be eligible for reelection if nominated by the senior pastor and the governing board. No person may be elected to a life-term on the governing board.

Section 6. Responsibilities of Governing Board

The governing board shall:

- A. Serve as the board of directors of the corporation.
- B. Work in concert with the senior pastor to pursue the mission of the church.
- C. Approve the annual budget, with salaries for all paid personnel; manage the legal and financial affairs of the church, and provide for the appropriate care, maintenance, and insurance of properties owned by the church. Individual members of the governing board shall not independently make decisions in the name of the church.
- D. Sign legal papers such as deeds, mortgages, and leases that have been approved in accordance with these bylaws.

The governing board is legally responsible for the operation of the corporation, therefore monthly meetings are strongly advised and quarterly meetings an absolute minimum. This not only protects the corporation, it protects the governing board and shows due diligence in the oversight of the corporation. Anything less than quarterly could be legally seen by courts as willful negligence by members of the board.

ARTICLE 8. ELDERS, STAFF PASTORS, AND MINISTRY LEADERS

Section 1. Elders

Elders shall serve with the senior pastor as spiritual overseers of the church.

- A. Eligibility – They shall exemplify the characteristics of a godly, Christian life as stated in 1 Timothy 3:1-13 and Titus 1:6-9. Although these attributes will never be fully perfected, elders must be clearly in pursuit of and committed to their development. Elders shall demonstrate they possess giftings and spiritual maturity necessary for shepherding people toward faithfulness to God and His Word. (Acts 20:28-30; 1 Corinthians 12:28-31; Ephesians 4:14-16; 1 Peter 5:1-4.) Faithful participation in the ministries of the church, spiritual accord with the senior pastor and elders, and financial support through tithing are among indicators of readiness to serve as an elder.
- B. Appointment – Elders shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the senior pastor. There shall be no fewer than three nor more than five elders.
- C. Duties – Elders shall serve in an advisory capacity to and as co-laborers with the pastor in all matters of the church's spiritual life and ministry.

Section 2. Staff Pastors

- A. Eligibility – They shall exemplify the characteristics of godly, Christian lives and possess the qualities of spiritual leaders as stated in 1 Timothy 3:1-13. Individuals appointed to full-time ministry roles shall be credentialed ministers in good standing with Open Bible Churches.
- B. Appointment & Review – Staff pastors shall be appointed by the governing board upon recommendation by the senior pastor. They shall serve congruent with the senior pastor's tenure and should anticipate resigning upon the senior pastor's departure. The senior pastor and governing board shall review staff pastors every two years.
- C. Duties – Staff pastors will function in a manner consistent with their job descriptions as determined by the senior pastor and governing board.

Section 3. Ministry Leaders

Ministry leaders shall be appointed by the senior pastor with approval by the governing board and shall be responsible to the pastor.

Notification in writing safeguards against anyone later protesting a decision by claiming not to have been notified about the meeting. Documentation protects.

Some churches only have enough leaders to function with one leadership body, the governing board, which also serves in the role of elders. If possible we recommend elders with a distinct spiritual role be selected. You may choose to not include this Article if you are not able to have elders separate from the governing board. If you choose to call your governing board members elders the governing board must still fulfill the responsibilities of the governing board. ARTICLE 9. FINANCE

All funds given to or received by the church for operation, development, and maintenance shall be deposited in governing board-approved banks or other federally insured institutions under the supervision of the treasurer. The church may accept gifts of real and/or personal property at the discretion of the governing board.

Section 1. General Fund

All undesignated contributions shall be part of the general fund.

Section 2. Donor-Designated/Restricted Funds

All donor-designated contributions shall be held as restricted funds and expended only according to the designation of the donor.

Section 3. Other Offerings and Fund Raising

Ministries of the church may receive offerings and raise funds as authorized by the governing board. Monies shall not be solicited or collected from members by a member of the church for any cause without the consent of the pastor or governing board.

Section 4. Handling of Offerings and Receipts

- A. Offerings shall be counted by at least two, authorized individuals, not related by blood or marriage, before the funds are removed from the church facility. An offering-receipts report shall be signed by those counting the offering and submitted to the treasurer.
- B. Written receipts shall be issued to donors for tithes, offerings, and other monetary contributions. IRS rules must be followed for acknowledgment of all cash and non-cash gifts.
- C. Funds shall be deposited within 24 hours of receipt or as soon as possible thereafter.

Section 5. Disbursements

Disbursement of funds shall be under the supervision of the senior pastor and governing board. One approved signature on checks is acceptable only if individual disbursements, including electronic transfers, on all monthly bank account statements are each reviewed and initialed within 90 days of the statement date by a non-signer on the accounts and he or she provides a timely report of the review results to the governing board members, including the president. In the absence of this procedure, two approved signatures shall be required. Signatories shall include the senior pastor and treasurer. Other officers or members of the governing board can be made signatories if desired. Checks shall not be pre-signed nor affixed with a stamped signature.

We recommend you make this provision for ministry leaders, which allows flexibility for changes.

ARTICLE 11. RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES

Scripture instructs Christians to handle disputes among members of the church within the church, not in civil courts. (1 Corinthians 6:1-8.) If a member feels there is an offense or misunderstanding with another member, the pastor, member of the governing board, staff pastor, or ministry leader, he or she shall go to the other individual promptly in love in order to resolve the difference.

- A. Unresolved – If the offense cannot be resolved on an individual basis, the two parties shall meet together with an appropriate church leader to resolve the dispute.
- B. Church Mediation – In the event two or more members of the church cannot resolve or agree about a dispute between them with the assistance of a church leader, they shall submit the dispute for mediation or judgment within the church, through the pastor or governing board. They shall refrain from suing one another or the church in a court of law.
- C. Open Bible Mediation – In the event of a dispute between a member and the pastor or governing board, the pastor or governing board may request the regional executive director to provide a mediator to resolve the dispute.
- D. Abiding by Mediation – Members shall agree to abide by the outcome of mediation. Failure to do so may be grounds for discipline.

ARTICLE 12. CESSATION

Section 1. Dissolution

Should the church become extinct or dissolved, all assets remaining after discharging the obligations and responsibilities of the corporation shall be turned over to (Name) Region of Open Bible Churches. In the event the (Name) Region is nonexistent, the assets shall be turned over to Open Bible Churches, an Iowa corporation, or in the event it is nonexistent, to a religious, educational, or charitable organization or organizations whose objectives are in harmony with those of Open Bible Churches. Such recipient organization or organizations must also be exempt from federal income taxation under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In no event may any of the assets of the church, upon dissolution thereof, be paid to or inure to the benefit of any individual member, member of the governing board, officer of the corporation, or any other private individual.

It is wise to lay out a procedure for how disputes are handled in the church. Disputes happen. The culture of our nation has become quite litigious, and members cannot be required to yield up their legal rights to sue. However, by including this procedure in your bylaws, which all new members are to receive, and explaining the procedure in your membership class, members should understand how disputes are to be addressed. It is important for this procedure to be established before disputes occur.
